Please read one, but not both, of the following websites:

- This website describing cancer immunotherapy
- This website describing the Stanford Center for Genomics and Personalized Medicine

YOU MUST BE LOGGED IN USING YOUR COLBY EMAIL LOGIN CREDENTIALS (TOP RIGHT LINK) TO BE ABLE TO COMMENT AND RESPOND TO COMMENTS.

Then:

1. Create a discussion thread on this page using the 'Add Comment' link below in which you identify and discuss an aspect of what is discussed in the site you read that you found particularly inspiring, and
2. Offer your thoughts on at least one other student's original comment (if you're among the first to post, you may need to return to this site later to build on another student's thread).
