

First-Year Faculty--Information Exchange

Premise:

This page is designed as a place for Colby first-year faculty to share information with each other. Feel free to edit this wiki site to add additional information, observations, links, documents, etc. Feel free to introduce additional categories as well. The goal is to provide an information clearinghouse that will be helpful.

Navigating Colby:

Important Information Sources:

 - Includes Schedule of Faculty Noontime Lunches, course review information, faculty meeting minutes and schedule, various reports, information about grants, college calendar and critical dates, travel grant application form, faculty handbook, committee information, and much more
- My Colby: my.colby.edu (Alternately, you can click on the My Colby link on the Colby web page.)
 - Includes your Course Schedule (along with rosters-which is where you can file an Academic Warning and/or a notice of Academic Negligence), your list of advisees (when you get them next year), course descriptions, important dates/deadlines, forms for honors/independent study/internships, event planning information (including a building availability search)
- Course Evaluation Form
- Colby Now: <https://www.colby.edu/now/>
 - It's a set of mailing lists / forums: announcements, events, lost & found, and so on. You can sign up to get any of these as email digests, or just check it whenever you need to announce something, sell something, search for a ride share, etc. Open to anyone on campus (faculty, staff, or students).

Official transition

- Car registration: Cars can be registered at the local town office. Note: There is an annual excise tax (non-trivial) that must be paid. Vehicle inspections are annual.
- Driver's license: Needs to be done at the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in Augusta
- Voter registration: Can be done when getting a driver's license
- Note on car registration: I'm a 1 year sabbatical replacement and after talking to the BMV in Augusta and my insurance company (GEICO) have been told that I don't need to switch registration or my license over and can absentee ballot my vote in my state of origin.

Employee Discounts

- There is a nice list of employee discounts on the Human Resources website: http://www.colby.edu/administration_cs/humanresources/benefits/discounts.cfm
- You can also get a Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce Advantage Card at the Human Resources office. It has an extensive list of additional discounts; see <http://www.midmainechamber.com/chamber/about/AdvantageCards.htm>
- Some additional discounts that are not (yet?) on the list:
 - Best Western Plus--Waterville: $69/night: Talk to Darlene at Best Western to ask for the Colby rate. (Good option for out-of-town guests)
 - Embassy Suites--Portland: $105/night, includes an evening reception (Note: The summer rate is $179.)
 - Hilton Garden Inn--Portland (if booked through Hewins Travel AAA): $110/night
 - Supercuts (in Waterville): $2 discount with Colby ID

Restaurants

- Ice Cream: Giffords Ice Cream (170 Silver Street) is really good; Gelato Fiasco (on Maine Street in Brunswick) is worth the trip.

Local services

- Medical/dental
 - Dr. Lovitz (Waterville Family Practice)--"excellent"
 - Dr. James Douglas (Inland Family Care)--"also excellent"
 - Dr. Karen Bossie (Waterville Women's Care)--"exceptional OB/GYN"
 - Dr. William George (Waterville Women's Care)--"also excellent"
 - Dr. Melissa Taylor (Waterville Pediatrics)
 - Dr. John Salvato--pediatrician
 - Dr. Michaela Clark-Kelley (Three Rivers Family Practice, 180 KMD)--"only been a patient one year, but she's very good"
- Vehicle
 - Tire Warehouse: They were very helpful on very short notice.
 - KMD Auto Service: Recommended to me by a couple different people. I've gone twice; Randy is not talkative, but he seemed to know what he was doing. The first time was pricier than I expected; the second time seemed more reasonable.
 - La Croix Auto: recommended by a few people, they seem very honest and nice
- Child care (See New to the Area below.)

There is some additional information at New to the Area? (This is a page on the Human Resources site.)
